It is something to be proud of to have a ticket for which no apology will have to be made. The democratic party can make the effort to deserve success, without being diverted from the assault on the opposition by any necessity of defense. - [New Orleans Picayune.

The democrats have nominated their best and most available man. Whatever the outcome may be the party has no cause to be ashamed of its candidate. Though not the greatest among democratic public men, Gov. Cleveland must be regarded the etrongest man that could have been selected. He has no ugly record to deter the masses from his support.-[Philadelphia

North-American. Cleveland is a conspicuous representa tive of the reform element in American politics. His nomination is due to bis prominence in his respect, and his triumph in the pending national contest will mark the strength of the reform idea throughout the country. With the steady support of the democratic party, by the independent Republican reformers, Mr. Cleveland Avalauche.

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURALWEEKLIES

The Country Gentleman is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and a yie of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superfor in either of the three chief divisions.

Farm Crops and Processes. Horticulture & Fruit-Growing, and quality of material.

Live Stock and Dairying: while it includes all minor decariments of rural interest, such as the Positry Yard, Entomology, Bes-Keeping, Green House and Grapery, Veterinary Replies. Farm Questions and Assawars, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the news of the week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete, and much attention is paid to the prospects of the crops, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all questions—When to Ray and When to Sail. It is libererally illustrated, and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a sense of the term, a
